F O R E W O R D

Adieu but not farewell, Class of 1937. Our congratulations go with you at this time. This book exemplifies the fine work you have done during the past four years and may you continue on this high plane through the years ahead.

LE ROY W. BEAM

Congratulations and sincerest wishes to the class of 1937. May each of you find success, happiness, and contentment in the life and opportunities which await you upon your graduation.

RUTH WHEELER

We've spent three hectic, happy, hilarious years with you, Seniors, and we wish you all the success and joy that life can offer. Be fair, be honest, be tolerant of others' faults and your names will be lasting in the hearts of your friends and acquaintances. Good Luck!

An All-Senior San Gorgonian staff met with enthusiasm, worked with diligence, and present with happiness the 1937 Year-Book of Banning Union High School.

All work and no play makes a dull life; so the staff sponsored a Christmas Dance on Dec. 18, which was given in the I.O.O.F. Hall through the courtesy of the Desert Edge Social Club. Students, alumni, faculty, patrons and patronesses enjoyed the gala evening.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1933, ninety shy boys and girls knocked at the gate of learning and were admitted. Immediately we were dubbed "Green Freshies" by the Seniors.

Becoming Student Body members by initiation was a great feast of laughter, tears, scorn and contempt. We were commanded to do the most embarrassing things and were ridiculed by the upper classmen.

The second year, as Sophomores, we lost the Freshies' love of gayety.

The Junior class was prominent in high school life. A series of one-act plays was given under the capable direction of Miss Harvison. In May a superb banquet at the Desert Inn in Palm Springs honored the Seniors. President Marjorie Koger, as toastmistress, introduced the speakers of the evening. After the dinner, the guests danced under the stars.

Then came the Senior year! Senior lords and ladies of B.U.H.S., under the direction of King Cruncleton, initiated the Freshies and accepted them as subjects. We entertained the student body with a Lincoln's Day program. Class members played prominent parts in the football and basketball championship teams. President Ben Allen presided over all Senior meetings.

The highlights of the end of the year were the A.A.U.W. tea for girls, Jr. the Sr. Banquet, The San Gorgonian, Baccaulaureate, and Commencement.

HELEN GILMAN '37

We, the Seniors of 1937, being of sound judgment, bequeath to those undergraduates whom we believe to be the most deserving, some of our hidden assets in this, our last will and testament.

I, Ben Allen, leave my curly locks to Harry Trotter.

I, Frank Albright, leave my ability to dance (on toes) to Gene Burson.

I, Coral May Bailiff, give my boisterous nature to Kate Hopper.

I, Charles Weaver, regretfully leave my place in the hearts of women to Teddy McKinney.

I, Margie Koger, leave my sunny disposition and fiery temper to Margaret Watson.

I, Charles Cruncleton, generously leave everything to everybody.

I, Joe Dushek, give my "Mounted Police" ability to Da Lonne Chisam.

I, Bill Raduziner, bequeath my store of pencils to the "Scrubs."

I, Ralph Murchison, leave my gavel to the next unlucky fellow.

I, Helen Gilman, bequeath my dignified dancing to Bobby Mehaffey.

I, Morrin Clemens, leave my sweet disposition to Louis Schneider.

I, Harry Raduziner, leave my ability to sleep in class to Bob Patterson.

I, Nathan Cherry, leave my pal, Morrin Clemens, to anyone who will have him.

I, Marjorie Coombs, bestow my store of wisdom on my kid brother.

I, Dorothy Moore, gladly leave my lisp to Doris Dudley.

I, Wesley Black, leave my taste (?) for cars to Wilbur Richardson.

I, George Hall, leave my candid camera to Jack Hardy.

I, Roger Manwaring, bequeath my Don Juan appearance to Victor Lynn.

I, Edmond Toll, leave my "Tarzan" physique to Buck Gardner.

I, Drusilla Wilson leave my "Blue Singer" Complex to Ann Gaudiello.

I, Barbara Fay Brown, leave my deporting desires and arguments to Anne Curry.

I, Ralph Troutt, reluctantly leave my hitch-hiking to Philip Germain.

I, Alice Williams, leave my socialistic tendencies to Juin Crawford.

I, Buddy Hobbs, regretfully leave my southern drawl to Joe Omlin.

I, Faye Robinson, give my masculine followers to Jean Houser.

I, Mason Lund, will my manly whiskers to Tommy Lee.

I, Dot Iselin, leave my witty (?) sayings to Ruth Roberson.
 I, Rose Gaudiello, leave my sister Anne to Howard Wiefels.
 I, Jimmie Higbee, give my nickname "Cubby" to Jerry Rudolph.
 I, Dortha Shields, gladly leave my flaming locks to Betty Jordan.
 I, Donald Lewis, give my silence to Bobby Edwards.
 I, Leah Belle Rifkin, leave my hysterical giggle to Jane Miller.
 I, Elizabeth Paige, leave my sweet and fetching ways to Deborah Abbott.
 I, Mary Ortega, give my noisy chattering ways to Elma Benavidez.
 I, Christine Moore, give my gum-chewing ability to Mona Andrew.
 I, Millicent Carter, leave my langorous eyes to Theda Watson.
 I, Eleanor Moore, leave my typing ability to Kathleen Harris.
 I, Viola Madigan, leave my Colgate smile to Marjorie Boehl.
 I, Donald Reyes, leave my friendships with Freshmen girls to Rupert Hinkle.
 I, Bob Long, leave my 'Eddie Duchin' complex to Stanley Hudson.
 I, Lewis Robertson, leave my extensive pedal extremities to Johnny Young.
 I, Max Rubright, give my absence from school every week to Bob Carper.
 I, Harry Calavan, leave my winning smile to Larry Miller.
 We, the Senior Class, will the strength of our boys and the beauty of our girls to the Junior Class.
 We, the Senior Class, leave to the Sophomores our ability to make money for the Junior-Senior Prom.
 We, the Senior Class, leave our dignity and poise and the wish that they may follow in our footsteps to the Freshmen.

S E N I O R S N A P S

One dark, stormy night I awoke suddenly. I looked around to see what had awakened me. I saw nothing; thunder crashed, lightning flashed, then it was dark again. In the distance came the sound of jangling keys, scratching pens, shifting feet; a pale light shone in the window and a ghost with a ghastly green face that seemed to have a light behind it appeared on the sill, drifted toward me dragging a chain of events that clanked across the floor terrifyingly. In a low voice that sounded as if it came out of a tomb, he bade me go with him. I could not resist; he seized my helpless hand and adjusted wings to my heels and ears and away we went through the window.

"Where are you taking me?" I faltered.

"I am taking you, ALICE WILLIAMS, to view the successes of your class mates of B.U.H.S. to shame you that you have not kept in touch with them, to tantalize you with their doings. Be quiet! We are approaching our first destination."

We flew swiftly side by side until we were looking down upon a dense jungle. There I saw WESLEY BLACK exploring Africa, disguised as a pigmy. We went rapidly northward to France where we found CHARLES CRUNCLETON in a Trappist monastery. In Paris the ghost pointed out BARBARA FAY BROWN (Fay Fancy, her stage name), doing a fan dance in "The CORAL MAY" night club (BAILIFF of course). At Oxford University we found MAX RUBRIGHT, the new bespectacled professor of Philosophy. From there the ghost took me across the Atlantic to New York. We went into a radio broadcasting station and saw MILLICENT CARTER, the highest paid professional giggler on the National Broadcasting staff. DORTHA SHIELDS, the New York "Book Beetle," was reviewing ELIZABETH PAIGE'S new book, "Gone With the Breeze." Then we flew slowly over Madison Square Garden, and I saw HARRY CALAVAN, world's heavy-weight wrestling champion, winning again. From New York the ghost took me to Niagara Falls where Mr. and Mrs. CHARLES WEAVER (nee MARJORIE KOGER) were honeymooning before Charles went back to his job of accompanying CHRISTINE MOORE, the Prima Donna, on the kettle drums. Two professional Barrel Riders over Niagara Falls proved to be Mr. and Mrs. RALPH MURCHISON. Mrs. Murchison was formerly JOSEPHINE DUSEK. Ralph had finally found his dream house and they were giving up their profession and going home to it in a few days. Just as we were about to fly away, I was struck with great force by a newspaper and looking down I caught a glimpse of MASON IUND who was chauffeured on the paper route by his faithful wife, formerly DOROTHY ISELIN. From here we went to a Canadian Mountie's Post and saw RALPH TROUTT and GEORGE HALL in red coats, still trying to get their man. Next we went to a small town in Kansas where the ghost pointed out Miss DOROTHY MOORE, a hostess in the Grande Mirado Hotel. Swiftly he took me to Hollywood where many of my class had made their fame. We found BOB LONG and FAYE ROBINSON threatening to out-do Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers; EDMOND TOLL, the new stand-in for King Kong; BEN ALLEN, famous for his brilliant screen adaptation of "The Boy Scout Hand Book;" NATHAN CHERRY and MORRIN CLEMENS, about to ruin Stoopnagle and Budd with their super special extra peachy inventions; and MARJORIE COOMBS, Gracie Allen's under-study, a type quite natural to her. In Los Angeles we saw FRANK ALBRIGHT, ELEANOR MOORE and ROSE GAUTIELLO fighting it out for the world's champion typist title. Frank was ahead with a score of 25 words a minute, all mistakes. As we flew slowly over the city, we saw Mrs. Wesley Black (VIOLA MADIGAN) and her two lovely little girls. The ghost said that usually Viola went with Wes on his journeys but this time she decided to stay behind so that she could see the new musical comedy, "Shout, Baby, Shout," starring HELEN GILMAN, for which HARRY and BILL RADUZINER wrote the song hits. At the University of Southern California we found DONALD LEWIS and LEAH BELLE RIFKIN leading the yells at a game in which DONALD REYES and JIMMIE HIGBEE were stars. BUDDY HOBBS was heading for San Pedro where he had just joined the Super-Horseman Department of the U. S. Navy. Up North at Stanford University the ghost pointed out ROGER MANWARING and said that he was the official date tryer-outer, elected by the student body after satisfactory demonstrations. He was trying one of his dates out at MARY ORTEGA'S place where she shows the town what a real Mexican restaurant is like. As we came home we saw LEWIS ROBERTSON, the first (and last) Republican Congressman from Cabazon. Then we saw DRUSILLA WILSON, Poet Laureate of Cathedral City.

A frosty breeze broke the thread of our flight and I saw the long, lean finger, the flashing eyes, the wildly gesticulating figure of our ancient but honorable class teacher, THELMA HARVISON. I took a nose dive into my feather bed, seized the covers and shuddered with joy that I, ALICE WILLIAMS, had again escaped that dreadful creature.

The Junior class under the enthusiastic leadership of Kathryn Hopper and the capable direction of their sponsor, Miss Daisy Cromwell, has had a very busy year.

The first important business of the year was the ordering of blue and gold class rings. The Juniors then became financially minded and sold hot dogs, pop, ice cream, and football line-ups at all games in Banning and Palm Springs.

The Juniors won the Girls' League donation contest at Thanksgiving and the $2.50 prize offered by the annual staff for the greatest number of subscriptions sold by January 18th.

As a parting courtesy, the Junior class entertained the Senior class members at a beautifully appointed banquet in Palm Springs.

The Council met once a month to discuss all student activities. Bills were presented and voted on. Advertising for football and basketball games was conducted through the council, and Beaumont's invitation to play in their gym so that Banning could have a cheering section was accepted.

Plans for fire drills were made and boys were appointed for handling the inside equipment. The enforcement of cleanliness in the building and on the grounds was stressed. A new constitution for the student body was authorized and a committee appointed.

Most of the officers served two terms, but Ralph Murchison replaced Charles Cruncleton as president. All social events were scheduled and dates placed on a social calendar.

Mr. LeRoy W. Beam, principal, was the adviser.

The Letterman's Club met at the beginning of the year and elected Theodore McKinney as president. Any boy who has won a varsity letter in a major sport is eligible for membership in the club. Dues were levied to purchase flowers for Ben Allen when he was injured in the Coachella football game. The boys also sponsored a drive to raise money to pay doctor bills. Plans have been made for the annual Block B picnic supper. Coach Kiech was the group adviser.

G I R L S ' L E A G U E

For the first time in several years the Girls' League has taken a real part in student activities. The major project was a volunteer basket donation to fifteen unfortunate families who were in need of food and clothing at Thanksgiving time. The entire student body contributed, and the girls delivered the baskets.

When calls for help came from Red Cross, the girls held a drive to collect money for the eastern flood victims, and a splendid response met their request.

Miss Ruth Wheeler, Josephine Dushek, and Helen Gilman attended the Southern California and Arizona convention at the Pomona High School on April 24th. They received valuable suggestions and enjoyed meeting, socially, the girls from high schools, large and small.

JOURNALISM

The Journalism Club, the purpose of which is to develop a clear, concise style of newspaper writing, was organized in October, 1936. The members of the club have acted as reporters and have contributed regularly to a high school column in the Herald and the Record. Each six-week period a new student editor is appointed.

In December the staff published a seven-page school paper, Hi School Hi Lights. The paper proved to be a great success financially.

The insignia of the club is a small gold quill supporting a raised "B." A member must give active service or forfeit the right to wear the pin.

An apparent interest in journalism and its possibilities has been evident during the past year, and it is sincerely hoped that next year will bring an even greater enthusiasm.

THE SENIORS

Four years of effort strenuous
With hope at times quite tenuous
Have brought you to your goal.

With one task now behind you
There's much yet to remind you
That this is not the whole.

Be not too much astonished
If you are still admonished
By those you strive to serve.

Full freedom from coercion
Is seldom mankind's portion
As you'll no doubt observe.

No matter what you're doing
From studying to wooing
You will not strive alone.

Be thoughtful of your neighbor,
Wherever you may labor—
Avoid contention's bone.

For in the very manner
In which you hold your banner
Your pathway may be shown.

All this is quite didactical
And may not be so practical
As what I might have said.

But I've this consolation
From many a recitation—
What's writ is seldom read.

The path may be umbrageous
You'll need to be courageous
In every step therein.

But you whom I'm addressing
Go forth with all my blessing
The world is yours to win.

DR. WM. C. GUNNERSON

THE DESERT CIRCUS

The sun is shining brightly upon the whitewashed corrals below, and the restless cattle are sweating beneath the summer sun. People are milling about, searching for the best places in the grandstands. Bright colored kerchiefs are flapping gently in the faintly stirring breeze, and the people have gone "Western" to the "umph degree" in their clothing. The refreshment stands are packed and everyone is pushing and pulling.

The rodeo starts, and the judges come out, mounted on beautiful horseflesh. Contestants vie for honors and prizes. Many graceful horses bear silver mounted saddles upon which are seated skillful riders. Next we see "bronco riding." The cowboys try their best to tame the mustangs, but many of them refuse to be tamed. From the crowd arises an occasional "Ride 'em cowboy!" The cowboys receive cheers and jeers, yet their courage is undaunted.

The cowboys try their luck at roping the calves. A cowboy starts out on horseback as the calf is let out of the corral. The cowboy ropes the calf, dismounts from his horse and ties up the calf's hoofs with a rope. The more skillful the cowboy, the more grace and dexterity he exhibits in this feat. The performance is not over yet, and we are entertained by many "Texas cowhands" who perform with ropes and knives.

The rodeo is over and our entertainment ceases. It has been an extremely fascinating afternoon, but all good things must end and so endeth the rodeo.

JOSEPHINE DUSHEK, Class of '37

MY, HOW YOU'VE GROWN!

Have you ever had anyone say that to you? I believe that at some time in every person's life someone has made that remark. Do you recall when Mother would take you to visit some very dear friends and they would "oh" and "ah" and say, "My, how you've grown!" Then they would continue with, "We haven't seen you since you were a baby!" Remember?

In like manner, let us consider our school, B.U.H.S. Haven't we grown! From a country school, day by day and year by year, we have become an outstanding school of Southern California. We are known for athletics, social affairs, and scholarship. Our location in the San Geronimo Pass makes us even more noticeable, and various commercial enterprises have greatly increased our enrollment.

Our faculty numbers have increased considerably. More and varied subjects are offered to students and the opportunities are many.

We, of the Senior Class, who have attended Banning for the entire four years, are particularly aware of its growth. Of course, we aren't a huge city school, but, to me, we are almost equal to one in many ways!

HELEN GILMAN, Class of '37

OPPORTUNITY

"Who is knocking at my door?"

"It is I, a maid of Latin. Come with me and I will make you a master of Latin. I will make you the greatest Latin teacher in the world."

"No, it is too hard. What good will your offer be to me in later life? Go away."

Some time later another knock was heard.

"Come in, and what do you want?"

"I am the maiden of Mathematics. Come with me and I will make you the greatest mathematician."

"Go away; I have no use for you."

Weeks passed, and then—

"Is that someone knocking at my door?"

"Yes, it is History. I want to take you first through King Tut's tomb, then through buried cities. You will learn of great battles, famous heroes, and exciting adventures of daring explorers; I will give you all the knowledge of history books."

"What is history to me? I'm waiting for pleasure and riches."

The door slammed.

Four years passed; this time a very faint knock was heard at the door.

"Come in; I suppose you are English or someone else to trouble me."

"No, I am Diploma."

"Oh yes, yes, come in, I will go with you. I will be glad to."

"No, you may not go with me. I have come to tell you that your high school opportunities are over; you have wasted them; there is no future for you; you are lost. Good-bye."

Bang! Bang! Bang! Football stars of B.U.H.S. shot forth to bring home an R.C.L. Championship trophy by first defeating Elsinore to the tune of 18 to 0. The Varsity then proved good mud eaters when they won from Naval Academy 39 to 6. The sands of Palm Springs flew as Banning crashed through Perris for a 24 to 0 win. Then came a surprise when the Varsity, out-weighed 20 pounds per man, walked away with an 18 to 6 victory from Hemet High. San Jacinto humbled Banning with a brilliant win of 7 to 0. The last game was in Palm Springs, and Banning Varsity proved too strong for Coachella's Arabs by defeating them 6 to 0. A smiling coach, a tired, victorious team, a shouting student body and the 1936-1937 season was over.

Banning Varsity team won the R.C.L. Crown for 1937 by going through the entire season of seven games without defeat. The scores varied so widely that victory was not cinched in any game until the whistle blew. Perhaps the most thrilling game in years was the one between Banning and San Jacinto Varsity which we won in the last minute of play with a 38 to 37 score. Beaumont was next trounced and the Arabs forfeited by refusing to play an overtime at the request of the officials. Banning placed second in the Riverside County Play-off.

They were little, but oh my! Such a sentence might well apply to the C team from Banning. Several times the Cs were checked off as defeated in the minds of visitors who didn't know the boys, but four out of six games found them fighting to the top even though it took the last ounce of strength and the last second of play. They were spectacular to watch and added many thrills to every game.

The R.C.L. track meet opened the new Perris Union High School track on Saturday, April 10, 1937. All the schools of the county participated and in the finals Coachella won the grand prize.

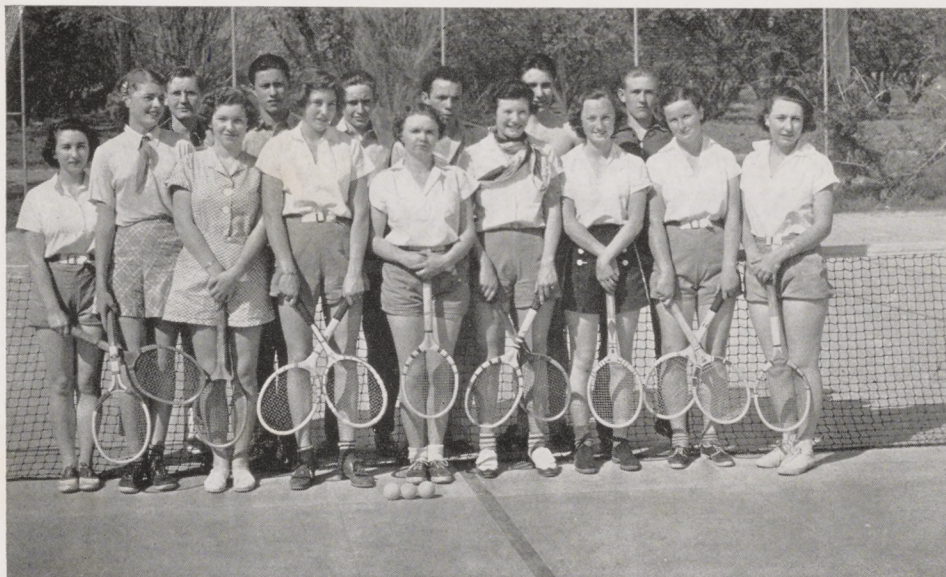

Banning varsity scored 13 points. For varsity Louis Schneider placed second in the mile; Bill Richardson, first, and Ralph Murchison, third, in the shot put; Bob Long fourth in the 220 and third in the high jump.

Class B made 6½ points. Bailiff placed fourth in the 660; Gene Burson tied for second in the pole vault, and Eddie Toll was second in the 320.

James Nielson upheld the C class by winning second place in the pole vault.

It is hoped that next year we will have a good track so that the boys may have a fair chance in competition. New material should blossom forth from the underclassmen and B.U.H.S. should take its proper place in the league.

For the first time in several years girls' competitive sports were played at Banning U.H.S. The first sport was basketball which the girls practiced after school. Inexperience and sprained ankles and wrists retarded but didn't dismay the girls, and they won a 35 to 22 victory from Hemet Jr High School. Although several senior girls will be missing next year, material is plentiful and the girls' basketball teams should swing into action early in the fall.

B A S E B A L L

The second interscholastic sport played by the girls this year was baseball. The team has practiced since January, but rains delayed games and kept the field in poor condition. Our first game was played in San Jacinto. After a slow beginning, the Banning team came to life in the fourth inning and won the game with a 2 to 5 score in their favor. Games are scheduled with Hemet Jr. High and Beaumont.

Nate Cherry: "That's a queer pair of stockings you have on, Charley, one red and the other green."

Chas. W.: "Yes, and I've another pair like it at home."

"Josephine," said Mrs. Dushek, "is that Ralph Murchison getting serious?"

"Guess he must be, Mom," she replied. "He's asked me how much I make and what kind of meals we have and how you are to live with."

Da Lonnie Chisam: "All handsome men are conceited."

H. Raduziner: "Oh no, not all little girl, I'm not!"

Mason: "Are you the man who cut my hair last time?"

Barber: "I don't think so, Sir — I've only been here six months."

Movie Actor: "I'll endorse your cigarettes for no less than $50,000."

Advertiser: "I'll see you inhale first."

Dreaming, yes dreams of the grand and glorious things we expect to accomplish in this life. All worthwhile things that were ever accomplished were first dreams.

Faith. Dreams must be backed up by faith in God and in ourselves. Otherwise we will just be another wasted life strewn along Life's Highway.

Courage. We must have courage to drive us onward and upward, backing up that faith we have in ourselves, making those beautiful dreams come true.

"As we travel along Life's Highway in that beautiful car of fate, do not try to make the detours but strive to make the car go straight."

Dear Miss Camp -
 It has been swell
 having you again as a teacher here in
 B. A. & S. All the luck in the world in your teaching profession in Hawaii.
